2023

Fall to a lonely sixth in the standings amid some major mid-season management changes. Esteban Ocon and Pierre Gasly prove closely matched, each scoring a podium, in Monaco and Zandvoort respectively.

2022

No podiums, but outperform arch rivals McLaren to rise to P4 in the final standings. Fernando Alonso, frustrated by reliability woes, departs at season's end for Aston Martin, to be replaced in 2023 by Pierre Gasly, forming all-French driver line-up with Esteban Ocon.

2021

A maiden F1 win for the Alpine name comes in Hungary courtesy of Esteban Ocon, aided by a staunch defence against a charging Lewis Hamilton from team mate Fernando Alonso, who also finishes on the podium in Qatar.

2020

Three podium finishes – the first since Renault's works return – signal a significant step forward ahead of the team's Alpine rebrand, and Fernando Alonso's comeback, for 2021.

2019

Progress up the championship order is halted, ironically by new Renault customers McLaren, who demote them to fifth in the standings, despite Daniel Ricciardo securing their best result to date with P4 in Italy.
